BUSES PROVIDED SATURDAY WILL MAKE ROUND TRIP TO BIG GAME; TICKET DEADLINE TODAY NOON

The Controller's office announced late yesterday afternoon that no one had signed up for the special buses to the University of San Francisco game which will be held Saturday afternoon in Kezar Stadium.

All students planning to make the trip must sign up in the Controller's office before 12 o'clock today, according to Rally Committee Chairman Dick Payne.

The price will be $1.25 for the round trip. The buses will leave the college at 11 o'clock Saturday afternoon and will return to the campus immediately after the game. The price of admission to the game will be 50 cents to students with a student body card.

If a group of 100 or more students attend the game, there will be an organized San Jose State routing section, according to head yell leader Tom Taylor.

The San Jose State band, 80 strong, will be on hand with little Janie May Reed to put on a half-time exhibition.

Soph-Frosh Squads In Symposium Meet

San Jose State's freshman and sophomore forensic squads have a symposium discussion tentatively scheduled with Stanford this coming Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Student Union.

Liberata Ruscigno and Jack Miller will be the chief speakers for San Jose. Each will give a short talk on the subject, "What Should Be the Government's Policy Toward Labor Unions in the Present Crisis?" The other participants who will take part in the discussion are: Jane Curry, Kenneth Fisher, Richard Flowers, Elwood Clark, Frank Davidson, Frank Griswold, Marjorie Howell, Lorraine Hurley, Robert Meusel, Maryanne Skinner, Bette Jane Tolan and Clark Smith.

A faculty moderator from San Jose will be chosen later.

Plans In The Making For Annual Banquet For John N. Black

Tentative plans are now being made in preparation for the annual banquet sponsored by Chi Pi Sigma, honorary police fraternity, honoring San Jose Police Chief John N. Black.

According to Peter Kristovich, club president, the affair will be held in the Ste. Claire hotel and will feature entertainment in the form of judo experts, crack pistol shots, and speakers.

Kristovich also announced that 10 members, or almost the entire personnel of the police school, aid of the local force in policing yesterday's Armistice parade.

MONDAY MEETING OF PI OMEGA PI

There will be a meeting of Pi Omega Pi at 7:30 Monday at Miss Gillespie's home, 264 Brooklyn street, Burbank. Those with transportation and those needing transportation will meet in front of the Student Union at 7:10 P. M.

CAMPAIGN GROWS

New Examination Rules Released By Committee

Under a changed ruling by the final examination committee, students who are ill during finals or who are forced to miss them for other reasons, judged equally satisfactory by the committee will be allowed to make up their finals the following quarter.

The examination committee of the faculty, which arranges the schedule for final examinations and handles the administration of the rules governing this schedule, announced this change as one adopted at a committee meeting Monday afternoon.

NO MAKE-UP

Last year, when the end quarter schedule was being tried out, the rule was that when a student missed an examination, he was not permitted to take the make-up until it occurred regularly scheduled at the end of some later quarter. The result was that some students might have to wait a full year before getting the make-up examination. Also the student's current schedule of examinations might conflict with the time of the make-up.

PERMISSION GRANTED

Under the changed rule, the student is permitted to make up the missed examination at some time during the next quarter. This may be at the scheduled time at the end of the quarter if it works out all right, or at some other time, possibly quite early in the quarter, provided the instructor and the student can agree on a time, and if the examination committee approves the student's petition for this special time.

College Red Cross Needs Four-Ply Yarn

An SOS goes out from Miss Pauline Lynch, campus Red Cross chairman, to anyone with any partly-used balls of four-ply yarn. Any color will be appreciated. Leave all donations in Dean Dimmick's office.

Knights Vote To Back Paper In 'Send A Daily To Camp' Drive

The Spartan Knights at their regular weekly meeting last night joined with the Student Council in backing the "Send a Daily to Camp" campaign.

The Knights' spokesman Tommy Taylor said that the service organization was behind the move 100 per cent. He said that each Knight made a contribution and work on contribution boxes would begin Friday.

Football Players Honored At Mixer Monday Evening

As a farewell to senior members of the Spartan "Golden Raiders" football squad who leave for Hawaii Thursday, the senior class has scheduled the first of its mixers for Monday night at the Newman club from 7:30 until 10:30.

Honoring the squad, the seniors have planned an evening of "off the record" dancing, billiards, bowling, ping-pong and other entertainment, according to Christine Mansfield, chairman.

ADMISSION 10 CENTS

Admission will be 10 cents to those senior students holding associated student body cards. Tickets will be on sale in the Quad Monday.

"A Hawaiian theme is planned," Miss Mansfield said, "and members of the senior class are asked to co-operate in decorating the club rooms or in selling tickets."

BOWLING TOURNAMENT

Dick Denton will preside as emcee for the program, with Babs Granite and Dr. Robert Rhodes of the Science department and adviser to the class, participating in the entertainment. A bowling tournament between the coaches and the football team will also be part of the evening's program.

Lew Danfel, president of the senior class, has issued a warning to all juniors that a barber will be present in case attempts are made to crash the party.

"We wish that seniors planning to attend would wear their old clothes, as we'll probably really let our hair down," Daniel declared. "Stags are welcome."

Many helpful suggestions have been offered by students and faculty to help set the course of obtaining contributions. More and more the realization of the good of this campaign as a benefit to those far off in army camps, on battlefields, in airfields, and abroad is becoming apparent.

Yesterday a cartoonist offered his talent and originated some clever ideas in cartoons to display about the college. They soon will be placed in various spots throughout the campus.

Every little thing given or suggested in conjunction with this campaign is adding to its success by building enthusiasm and co-operation.

In reference to the contribution boxes that will be placed on the campus and in the co-op, one is aware of a conspicuous feeling he has in placing money in it. One has the proverbial feeling of helping some dying soul from starvation or the keeping alive of the down-and-out. This campaign is not of a charitable nature. No one will suffer without this aid. It is merely a semi-patriotic and collegiate favor to the former students of San Jose State college. It is something you would enjoy if you were in their place. If you are too self-conscious to walk up to the little box, just nonchalantly lean on it and drop your contribution. Get into the spirit of this campaign and keep in mind that a little bit will amount to a large part in keeping "our" soldiers happy.

EDITORIAL

OPEN LETTER TO ALL CAMPUS ORGANIZATIONS:

We are asking your co-operation in making the "Send a Daily to Camp" campaign a success. This is the first time in the history of the college that such a drive has been undertaken, and it is going to take a lot of effort and some sacrifice to put it over.

The ultimate goal of the campaign is to send our college paper to former students who have been drafted or enlisted in the United States armed forces. We would like to send it, first of all, to the men who are making $21 a month. We feel that commissioned officers are able to pay for their own subscriptions.

It will be your individual members' nickels and dimes that will keep a Daily in camp. We are asking you to be generous with your donations so the paper can be sent to the men through the entire year.

Your organization, whether it is social, scholastic, or recreational, is one of the natural leaders on the campus. You are in a position to influence your members to contribute toward our drive.

By helping further the 'Daily' drive now, you may be giving your individual members assurance of a paper. Every day young men from our college are being drafted or are enlisting in the various defense units. Surely some of these men are from your organization, or, as in the case of women's societies, you are acquainted with them.

We would like to send the paper to approximately 100 men. That means a great deal of time and work will have to be taken by some one to prepare the papers for mailing every day. The Journalism department will do this.

All we're asking of you is to help pay for the printing and mailing cost of the paper. We'll do the rest.

We hope that we will get your full co-operation for this drive. It is indeed worthy of your support.

Lower Classmen Debate Over KROW Saturday

The KROW Debate Series of Saturday, November 29, will be San Jose State's chance to monopolize; we have two teams debating against each other, according to Henry Leland, debate manager.

The Freshman team will take the affirmative side of the question, "That Labor Unions Should Be Incorporated", against the Sophomore squad. For the first-year men will be Jack Miller and Marjorie Howell, who will argue it out with their fellow school mates of the sophomore class who will be represented by Lorraine Hurley and Frank Griswold.

Each speaker will give his comment on the topic for six minutes followed by a short discussion. The time of the program is from 2 until 2:30 o'clock.

STATE RATED UNDERDOG IN U. S. F. GAME

Spartlets Beat Stanford Runners In Close Race

By JOHN HOWE

Coach Bud Winter's frosh cross-country team eked out a 26 to 29 win over the Stanford Yearlings at the Farm yesterday afternoon in spite of the fact that papooses Larry Gray and John Fulton took first and second place respectively.

Thelmo Knowles placed third for the Spartlets with a stretch drive that almost overcame Fulton's lead. Other yearlings that aided in the victory were Tony Piazza, Guido Teresi, and Bob Ingram who finished fourth, fifth and sixth. Grover Grimes came in last for the Indians.

Gray finished in the fast time of 11:09.5 seconds with Fulton and Knowles closing in fast at 11:10.3 seconds. Knowles, timing his race beautifully, held back until the last half mile and then slowly began to challenge the pace setters.

He came up from sixth to third and only missed winning by eight-eighths of a second, which is extremely close considering the cross-country run is a two and one-half mile grind. Piazza, only three and a half seconds out of first place, ran a consistent race throughout, holding third most of the way behind Gray and Fulton.

The rest of the field was far back with two entries—Al Toth of the Spartlets and Indian Bob Sears—dropping out. Jim Doty, Stanford entry, was scratched before the race, giving the yearlings a ten-point handicap.

With the first-race tension off, the frosh are expected to face Moesto Junior college with more assurance and show better form when they invade the Pirate stronghold next week.

WRESTLERS GET UNDER WAY WITH NOVICE TOURNAY

The annual novice wrestling tourney will get under way Tuesday, December 2, and Thursday night, December 4, announces Sam Della Maggiore, wrestling coach.

To date five teams have been entered in the tourney with about 15 entrants participating.

Heading the list of entries is Ivan Olsen and Al Long's team—the Blondes—which has thirteen grapplers named to start.

The other teams include the Varsity House squad, headed by Dave Himes; Paul Anderman's Chicagoans; the Adonis, coached by Johnny Peebles, and a team under the coaching of James Fowler, which has not yet been named.

Tuesday night will find the eliminations taking place to be followed by the final matches on Thursday, when the winners will be awarded medals.

"There is still time to enter the tournament, and entrants do not have to be members of a team to compete," states Della Maggiore. Instruction will be given to those who wish it any night after 5 o'clock in the Little gym. Freshmen are also needed for the yearling grappling team, states Della Maggiore.

Only those who have not wrestled on college teams are eligible for this tourney.

INDIANS OUTLAST SPARTAN WATER POLO TEAM TO WIN 7 TO 3 IN STANFORD POOL

Papooses Beat Freshman Squad 10 To 6 In Preliminary Game

The Stanford varsity water polo team outlasted the San Jose squad to win a 7 to 3 verdict in the Stanford pool yesterday afternoon.

The State poloists, playing without the services of their regular goalie, Dan Meehan, made a tight game of it until half way through the third period, when they began to tire. Egon Hoffman moved over from his regular guard spot and took over the cage for the Spartans. This was Hoffman's first game at goalie this year and he proved himself by making several brilliant saves.

Stanford held a 2-0 lead at the end of the first quarter after Mape and Jones had scored in the final two minutes of the period.

San Jose tied up the game at 2-2 on a shot by Al Corcoran from 25 feet out and a solo dash down the middle of the pool by center forward Marty Taylor. Taylor's score was by far the outstanding play of the game. On the throw-in after Corcoran's goal, Stanford controlled the ball and passed it back to the center back. Taylor followed the ball back and somehow managed to gain possession of the ball and headed for the Stanford goal. Taylor took it, not without a lot of competition from a Stanford swimmer, right to the mouth of the goal, and flipped home his shot.

Stanford scored again in the second quarter to gain a 3 to 2 half-time lead.

After a minute of play, in the second half, Taylor took the ball half the length of the pool and scored during a mix-up in front of the Stanford goal to knot the score again.

Here San Jose began to tire and Stanford took control of the situation, scoring four more goals and making an extra one as the gun went off, which the referee ruled no good.

In the preliminary contest, the Stanford Frosh crushed the Spartan Freshmen 10-6. The Indian babes capitalized on San Jose's poor play in the first quarter to score 5 goals to the Spartans' none. Only the near miraculous saves of goalie Dave Anderson kept the State frosh in the game.

Of the six San Jose goals, Frank Goulette was responsible for five, while Stanford's substitute guard, Ching, netted the sixth Spartan score.

Sunday the San Jose Varsity poloists leave for Southern California where they will meet the University of Southern California and California Institute of Technology.

Kezar Contest Will Find USF Dons All Set For Revenge Act On Spartans For Two Past Defeats

By SEBASTIAN SQUATRITO

For the third successive year an underdog San Jose State college football team will travel to San Francisco Saturday to meet the big Dons of U.S.F. in a football game at Kezar stadium with the kickoff set for 2 o'clock.

In the past two years with Ken Cook leading the way, El Sparto has kicked El Senor Don in the breeches by scores of 16 to 6 and 7 to 6.

FREE SCORING GAME

Cook is no longer wearing a Spartan uniform, and even if he were, the Staters would be figured to be easy pickings for the Bay City Hilltoppers.

Figuring on a free-scoring game, Coach Ben Winkelman has given his squad some new pass plays in the past two days and will continue to stress the Spartan offense in the remaining drills.

The Golden Ti(e)de will hold a morning workout tomorrow, Thanksgiving Day, and will wind up the practices with a light drill on Friday afternoon.

AFTER STANFORD GAME

Before the season started, the USF coach, Jeff Cravath, and his assistants—Al Tassi and Bill Howard—stated, "We don't really expect to get rollin' until after the Stanford game, but we'll give 'em all trouble from there on."

The coaches weren't talking through their hats. They penetrated the strong Indians for 26 points, rode over Brigham Young university for 25 markers, scored almost every time they got the ball in running up 47 points against Fresno State, and ended up two weeks ago with a mere 27 against Loyola.

LONG GAINERS

The interesting thing about these touchdowns is the way they get to that goal line. Practically all of the scores were made on a single long play. Examples of the Dons' scores in these games show runs for distances of 19, 65, 78, 47, 19, 65, 55, and 37 yards.

Along with these have been pass-plays accounting for two 30-yard touchdowns, one 95-yard score, and a few short ones.

Last week they cancelled their game with Moffett Field, thus giving them an extra week to prepare for the Spartans.

7 TO 3 OVER NEVADA

The Bay City team also defeated Nevada 7 to 3, while San Jose met their only defeat of the year at the hands of the Wolf Pack by a 20 to 19 score.

Although Stu Carter and Henry Autognani returned to practice this week, Fred Lindsey has yet to put in an appearance; however, all is not dark, for if his injured leg continues to get better he will be ready Saturday. That is, he'll be ready to kick points after touchdowns and a field goal, if needed.

With Aubrey Minter regaining the form he showed the past two years and early this season, the Spartan running attack might cause a great deal of trouble for San Francisco Saturday.

Speaking Society In Broadcast

"The Necklace", Guy De Maupassant's short story, was presented by KSJS, radio speaking society, last night over station KQW.

The modernistic dramatization of the world-famous story was made by Keith Bickford, who also directed the production and enacted the leading role. The setting of the dramatization was changed from the Paris of 1870 to America of 1941. Typical Americans replaced the French clerks of the original De Maupassant creation.

Bickford also experimented with unusual sound effects which were used in the broadcast. In one phase a metronome was employed to signify a monotonous passing of time.

STUDENTS DISPLAY WORK IN ART WING

An exhibit of student work will be on the walls of the main hall in the Art wing today and through next week.

In collecting materials for this show, nearly every instructor in the department contributed work done by his or her students. In the collection there are to be found watercolor, oils, block printing, batik, lettering, crafts, and ceramics with examples of color and design, design and composition, and life studies.

KNIGHTS AND CITY UNABLE TO AGREE ON PARKING LINES

Because of conflicting agreements with the San Jose City Council as to where to paint parking lines and where to paint restricted lines, the Spartan Knights were unable to renew parking around the college.

According to Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, the conflict lies among three possible ways to park. At present the lines are painted for angle parking. Other types are vertical and straight. Dr. MacQuarrie suggested that straight parking facilitated many more automobiles, and proved much safer for drivers in getting out.

The Knights will await inspection by the city engineer and authority by the city council before painting the new lines.
